

1. God's people stray when God delivers us, but we disobey.

(vv. 1-2; Deut. 4:32, 37; Luke 12:48)

2. God's people stray when God speaks, but we don't fear.

(vv. 3-8; Exo. 19:6, 8; Isaiah 66:2)

2. God's people stray when God speaks, but we don't fear.

(vv. 3-8; Exo. 19:6, 8; Isaiah 66:2)

a. God rules His world (v. 6).

2. God's people stray when God speaks, but we don't fear.

(vv. 3-8; Exo. 19:6, 8; Isaiah 66:2)

- a. God rules His world (v. 6).
- b. God reveals His plans (v. 7).

2. God's people stray when God speaks, but we don't fear.

(vv. 3-8; Exo. 19:6, 8; Isaiah 66:2)

- a. God rules His world (v. 6).
- b. God reveals His plans (v. 7).
- c. God speaks, and we fear and obey (v. 8).

3. God's people stray when God calls us to a mission, but we refuse.

(vv. 9-10; Exo. 19:5-6; Deut. 4:6; Matt. 5:14-16)

4. When God's people stray, God will judge.

(vv. 11-15; Rom. 8:1; Eph. 2:8; 2 Cor. 5:10; Heb. 2:3)

4. When God's people stray, God will judge.

(vv. 11-15; Rom. 8:1; Eph. 2:8; 2 Cor. 5:10; Heb. 2:3)

a. We give heed to ourselves.

4. When God's people stray, God will judge.

(vv. 11-15; Rom. 8:1; Eph. 2:8; 2 Cor. 5:10; Heb. 2:3)

- a. We give heed to ourselves.
- b. We remember that one day God will judge sin finally and completely.