

PURSUING GOD'S HEART

The life of David

1. David's Predicament

- David is fleeing into enemy territory...where he could be recognized...carrying Goliath's sword
- consider David's later self-evaluation in light of God's person & work
- reflecting on my past is vital to bringing about change in my present & future

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- "Be gracious / merciful to me, O God..." (v. 1)

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- “Be gracious / merciful to me, O God...” (v. 1)

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- “Be gracious / merciful to me, O God...” (v. 1)
 - ↳ ‘Who am I that you should extend mercy to me? Even so, I ask that you would.’

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- “Be gracious / merciful to me, O God...” (v. 1)
 - ↳ ‘Who am I that you should extend mercy to me? Even so, I ask that you would.’

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- David's desire is to run TO God, rather than run AWAY from his situation

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- David's desire is to run TO God, rather than run AWAY from his situation
- do not confuse fear for prophecy

2. David's Plea: Ps. 56

- David's desire is to run TO God, rather than run AWAY from his situation
- do not confuse fear for prophecy
- do not let fear, etc. hinder your prayer

3. David's Praise: Ps. 34

- recognizing the depth & intimacy of God's love changes everything

3. David's Praise: Ps. 34

- recognizing the depth & intimacy of God's love changes everything
- the love of God changes fear of others / circumstances into fear of the Lord

4. David's People

- as David's plea is turned into praise, God entrusts him with his people

4. David's People

David was never more like his Savior than when he turned to the Lord rather than turning away from his situation.

4. David's People

David was never more like his Savior than when he turned to the Lord rather than turning away from his situation.

The God who could have saved me from my situation is the God who will sustain me in my situation.
