

PURSUING GOD'S HEART

The life of David

1. To Whom do I Listen?

- to whom I listen & when I choose to listen reflects the state of my heart
- opportunity does not constitute legitimacy
- God's will must be accomplished in God's way, not my way
- Ps. 142

1. To Whom do I Listen?

- the habit we have developed with media & technology is the habit that should exist with our Savior

1. To Whom do I Listen?

- the habit we have developed with media & technology is the habit that should exist with our Savior
- Family Worship Initiative

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms

↳ Ps 58...vv. 6, 7a, 8, 10a !!

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ the cry for vengeance is a cry for justice

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ the cry for vengeance is a cry for justice
 - ✓ a cry for justice is a cry for help & hope

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ the cry for vengeance is a cry for justice
 - ✓ a cry for justice is a cry for help & hope
 - ↳ David's speech can be violent, but his actions are not

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ the cry for vengeance is a cry for justice
 - ✓ a cry for justice is a cry for help & hope
 - ↳ David's speech can be violent, but his actions are not
 - ✓ prayer takes vengeance out of my hands & places it into God's

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ honesty before God can bring spiritual growth

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ honesty before God can bring spiritual growth
 - ✓ might anyone be thinking / praying this way against me?!

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ don't be quick to judge who your enemy is

2. In Whom do I Trust?

- imprecatory Psalms
 - ↳ don't be quick to judge who your enemy is
 - ↳ consider the positive: God is my Father, friend, ally