

Questions for Reflection and Discussion - 1 Samuel 25

1. What are some lessons God has taught you in the past that you need continually to keep in mind in the present?
2. Christians often speak of feeling prompted to say or do something. How can we become more aware of times when the Spirit is retraining us?
3. Do you sometimes underestimate what God can do through you? Why might that be? How can you begin to alter that perception?
4. What can you do now in order to be ready to receive counsel that might not be to your liking in the future?
