

Questions: Acts 2

1. Who is Acts 2 about? Give reasons for your answer from the chapter.
2. What might be the significance of the 120 speaking in different languages? (cf. Gen. 11:1-9)
What might that indicate about the church today and our hope for the future?
3. Should Christians today continue to devote themselves to what is mentioned in 2:42? If so, to what degree are you devoted to these?
4. 2:44ff speaks of the believers having all things in common even while there was still private property (cf. 5:4). How have you been or how can you become generous to the point where this would describe you?
