

Questions for reflection – Acts 17

1. We've seen before, and we see again in this chapter (v. 5), that the Jews were jealous. Of what were they jealous? Why might they have been jealous? How would you respond, if given the opportunity?
2. The term "Berean" has become a byword for those who study the Scriptures carefully. Is this a good description of you? How do you study the Bible?
3. How would you characterize Paul's address in 17:22-31? How is Paul seeking to be persuasive? What can you learn from him?
4. Take some time to pray that God would give you the courage to speak to an unbeliever about the gospel...perhaps to someone you already know.
