

Questions for reflection – Acts 22

1. What in Paul's past helped prepare him for the ministry to which God called him? Give specific examples.
2. Looking back over your life, how has God worked in you / prepared you for particular situations and circumstances?
3. Do you have friends who help shape you, challenge you and change you to become more like Christ? How can you become this sort of friend without being overbearing, know-it-all or unkind?
4. What is often different about the responses to Paul between the Roman authorities and the Jewish authorities? Why do you think this difference existed?
