

Questions for reflection: Acts 25

1. When have you doubted God's sovereignty or wondered if God really cared about the details of your life? How did you respond? Why did you respond that way?
2. What encouragement & instruction can you take from Acts 4:24ff & how Paul handled his challenges in Acts 22ff?
3. Can you think of passages in the Bible that will help you grow in your understanding & appreciation of God's sovereignty?
4. Are your prayers grounded in a biblically informed appreciation for the sovereignty of God? What do such prayers look / sound like?
