

Questions for reflection – Acts 27

1. Paul had a promise from God that he would arrive safely in Rome. What promises does God give to us in the Bible that should encourage us to carry on despite difficult circumstances?
2. Paul desired / longed to be able to take the gospel to Rome as well as to places where it had never been preached before. What desires / longings do you have about how God would use you? Be specific.
3. What are some important habits of grace that we should be working into our daily lives so that, when difficulty comes, we can continue to be an example of gospel informed character?
4. Can you think of a trial in your life that has changed your plans and now you can see how God is using this change for your good & his glory?
