

Questions for reflection – 1 Samuel 18

1. Can you think of an example in your own life when you have submitted to someone less capable than yourself? What made it easy / difficult?
2. What are your strengths? How might these become a snare or obstacle to growing in humility?
3. How is the humility you have before Christ evident to others in the humility you show toward them?
4. Saul is clearly insecure around David. Why? Should he be? What insecurities have you dealt with and how have you / do you deal with them?
