

Questions for reflection – 1 Samuel 21:1-9

1. Where do you run when the going gets tough? What are your escape mechanisms? Are they self-centered or God-centered?
2. What are the evidences of God's continued care & provision in your life today? Take time to give Him thanks.
3. What are some situations where you tend to apply part of God's Word in a way that favors you over your neighbor?
4. Is there ever a time when lying is acceptable? Think of David's experience. Think of Jews in Nazi Germany.
