

Questions for 1 Samuel 22:6-23

1. How does someone, like Saul, move from being so accepting of God's work to constantly turning a blind eye and refusing to accept what God is doing? How can we guard against this development in our own lives?
2. When have you seen or experienced God fulfilling his Word in your life or someone else's?
3. Given the troubles we experience, what does it mean to say that we are safe in Jesus' presence?
4. How has the gospel changed & challenged you in the past? How does it continue to do this?