

Questions for 8/27:

1. Name 2 or 3 specific sins that are evident in the world around us. What does it look like for Christians to be holy ("set apart") in these areas without becoming self-righteous or legalistic? How can we minister to people who are enslaved to these sins? How can we, as the people of God, help one another live holy lives in a sin-saturated world?

2. As the people of God, it is our job to remind one another that "God is with us." How have you seen God at work recently? Or, how are you tempted to doubt that he is with you? Encourage and pray for one another.
