

Questions for reflection – 1 Samuel 21:10-22:2

1. When was the last time you made a prayerful & thorough evaluation of your life? What are some of the components for doing this that can keep us from simply affirming the status quo or giving approval to our sinful habits or characteristics as though they were righteous?
2. Grumbling is an act of self-righteousness. Agree or disagree? How can you keep yourself accountable to stop grumbling (Phil. 2:14)?
3. Do you struggle with Ps. 34:10b? How could David write this? What does it mean for Christians to “lack no good thing”?
4. Who has God put in your life that you might show the love of Christ to them through caring, protecting, encouraging & guiding?
