

Questions for reflection: 1 Samuel 26

1. How does God build character in his people? How has he specifically built character into you?
2. Where in this story did David lack understanding, but remained obedient? Can you think of a time when you knew the way of obedience even if you didn't know / understand what God was doing?
3. What is your appetite for worship with the gathered church? What can you do to prepare for weekly worship?
4. What place does worship hold in your life during the week? Do you miss it if you forget about it?
