

Questions for reflection: Revelation 1:9-20

1. What does love as a commitment look like with respect both to God and to the members of Christ Baptist? As you think about your love for God, is there any evidence of divided love?
2. How do you approach Sunday morning worship? How do you prepare for it? Can you tell when you are in church but not in the Spirit? How?
3. What do you say you believe about God? What do your actions reveal you believe about God? Where is there substance and where is there superficiality?
4. What might it mean to be guided by a vision / understanding of God rather than to be guided by your own dreams?
