God Drawing Me

Luke 10:38-42

Do I value what is important?

My actions reveal what my heart values.

Do I value what is important?

- do I give myself before I give my work?

Do I value what is important?

- do I give myself before I give my work?
  - ↳ I value what I can do, but Jesus wants me to value what he needs to do

Do I value what is important?

- do I give myself before I give my work?
  - ↳ I value what I can do, but Jesus wants me to value what he needs to do
  - ↳ where do I go that my focus on the Lord remains steadfast?

Do I value what is important?

- do I listen intently to his word?

Do I value what is important?

- do I listen intently to his word?

If the ax is dull, and one does not sharpen the edge,

he must use more strength,
but the advantage of wisdom is success.

(Ecclesiastes 10:10)

Do I value what is important?

- Jesus is drawing me

Do I value what is important?

- Jesus is drawing me

We wrongly exchange the value of the important for the tyranny of the urgent.
