

Questions for reflection: Psalm 51

1. How does a double life of doing some of the right things, but clinging on to particular sins, develop? What can we do to resist this pattern of living?
2. Have you ever prayed that the Lord would restore the joy of your salvation? How did he answer that prayer?
3. Do you use Scripture as you pray? How does that help you? Are you careful to draw on the whole counsel of God?
4. Do you meet with others to pray? If not, what is stopping you?
