

Questions for reflection – Psalm 23

1. Why might this Psalm be such a perennial favorite?
2. Have you ever been through something like “the valley of the shadow of death” and later realized that God used it to lead you further along “the path of righteousness”? How did you come to realize what God had done?
3. How do you know God’s presence? Is it a feeling? a sense? an understanding? a revelation? Is it possible to think you are experiencing God’s presence, but actually are not?
4. When & how have you seen the evidence of God’s goodness & mercy pursuing you?
